Conditions of participation

1. The Open Days is an event designed for students interested in our Bachelor Programmes. For students who would like to learn more about our Master Programmes, Swiss Education Group organises customised individual visits.
2. Participation in the Open Days is free of charge and without obligation. Accommodation will be offered on condition that you participate in the entire programme you registered for.
3. Meals are offered in the training restaurants of the schools. Transportation is provided between the schools, however you must organize your own transportation from the airport (Geneva or Zürich) to Montreux on your arrival day and back to the airport on your departure day.
4. The minimum age for potential students to participate is 16 years of age. We allow a maximum of 3 guests per party (1 candidate plus 1 or 2 parents) and provide one hotel room per family.
