

www.elcbristol.co.uk

Bristol Old Vic Theatre School

www.oldvic.ac.uk

English + Singing for Musical Theatre
English + Acting in Contemporary Drama
English + Acting for Camera

Bristol Old Vic Theatre School (BOVTS) is one of the most successful and well-respected drama schools in the UK. Their alumni include some of the UK's finest actors, including 2019 Oscar-winner, Olivia Colman, Sir Daniel Day-Lewis, Sir Patrick Stewart, Miranda Richardson and Jeremy Irons.

ELC Bristol is delighted to offer English Combination courses this summer together with BOVTS.

- Minimum age: 18.
- Minimum level: B2 (Upper-Intermediate) level by the time you join the theatre course.
- It normally takes around 12 weeks to improve your English by one level.
- ELC Bristol will provide accommodation for the duration of the BOVTS course at Goldney Hall University Residence. Usual accommodation options will be available for the duration of the English course.

ENGLISH + ACTING FOR CAMERA

English Course + Three-day intensive course

Wed 10 - Fri 12 July 2019 10.00am - 6.00pm

Mon 15 - Wed 17 July 2019 10.00am - 6.00pm

Registration & Materials Fee: £100

Course Fee: £420 + cost of language course

Course includes the filming of a scene with a professional director and crew. Spaces limited to 6 per course with a student/staff ratio of 3:1.

ENGLISH + ACTING FOR CONTEMPORARY DRAMA

English Course + Five-day course

Mon 15 - Fri 19 July 2019 10.00am - 5.30pm

Registration & Materials Fee: £100

Course Fee: £475 + cost of language course

ENGLISH + SINGING FOR MUSICAL THEATRE

English Course + Five-day intensive singing course

Mon 22 - Fri 26 July 2019 10.00am - 5.30pm

Registration & Materials Fee: £100

Course Fee: £475 + cost of language course

Deadline for applications: 17 June 2019

